

Guidelines for Riding in Camden Hunt Country

Camden Hunt Schedule

Wednesdays and Saturdays September through mid-March 8:00 am until 1 pm

It is recommended that you do not ride during these times unless you are participating in the hunt. No dogs are allowed on the property during hunting hours.

Parking and Trail Access

There are 3 areas for parking trucks and trailers and accessing the trails.
Look for the metal white and black signs designating the access area.

North/South Powerline (access from Firetower Road)
East/West Powerline (access from Peckwoods Road)
The Camden Hunter Barn on Red Fox Road

*Maps of Camden Hunt Country are available for purchase at the Tack Room.
Proceeds benefit The Camden Hunt and Hunt Country Maintenance.*

Riding Etiquette

Ride only on obvious trails and be sure to avoid damaging new pine tree seedlings.

Follow all common equine rules of etiquette.

Be polite and considerate at all times.

Please report any damage to trails or jumps to one of the Joint Masters.

Stay away from privately owned barns and paddocks.

Do not ride directly on private dirt roads or driveways – stay to the side.

Follow all 'Do Not Ride' signs posted on certain parcels of land.

Prohibited Use

Fires Firearms Littering Motorized Vehicles Smoking

Waivers and Coggins

Signed release waivers for riders must be on file with The Camden Hunt.

A negative Coggins is required for any horse ridden in Camden Hunt Country.

Anyone who rides in Camden Hunt Country more than five times a year and who is not a member of The Camden Hunt is required to become a "Friend of Hunt Country" at an annual cost of $200. For information on joining, please see our website at www.camdenhunt.com, email us at thecamdenhunt@yahoo.com or call one of these Joint Masters. Judy Thiel 803-432-6860, Dan Floyd 803-385-2651, Sue Senor 803-427-5863, Joanne Schwartz 803-669-1493, Nancy Tans 803-548-0360.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation,
Hunt County Landowners and The Camden Hunt